ORDERS RESOLUTIONS
SPREAD ON RECORD

Judge F. D. Ramsay Grants Request of Bar Association in W. J. En-triken Memorial Exercises.

At the conclusion of the memorial exercises of the Bar association in the circuit court yesterday, Judge F. D. Ramsay made a few remarks, and ordered the resolutions spread on the court record, and court adjourned for the day. Among the speakers were Hon. William Jackson, W. R. Moore, H. A. Weld, C. J. Searle, E. H. Stafford, M. J. McEniry, W. A. Meese, J. F. Witter, J. T. Kenworthy, A. H. Koehler, J. B. Oakleaf and Judge R. W. Olmsted. Mr. Jackson presented the committee report as follows:

"At a recent meeting of the Bar association of this county, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft and present to this court resolutions pertinent to the life and character of Walter Judson En-triken, recently deceased, for many years a practicing lawyer at the bar of this county.

"In response to that appointment we respectfully report to this court the following:

"Walter J. En-triken, our deceased brother, was born on a farm in Columbiana county, state of Ohio, on the eighth day of February, 1846. Here he resided with his parents until March, 1861, when he removed with them to Geneseo, Henry county, Illinois. In August, 1865, he entered as a student Oberlin college, from which college he graduated August 4, 1870. On the 18th of August, 1870, he was joined in marriage to Miss Julia A. Chamberlain, now deceased, who was to him during the years of their married life, a faithful, loving wife and helpmate. Her death occurred February 25, 1908. In 1870 Mr. En-triken commenced the study of law. He studied in the office of the Hon. George E. Wait and also of Major C. E. Modewell in Geneseo. In April, 1871, he removed to Moline and continued his legal studies with the Hon. J. T. Browning. He was admitted to practice in October, 1871. Afterwards he entered into partnership with W. R. Moore, which continued some years. In the year 1876 he formed co-partnership in Moline with Mr. Browning under the firm name of Browning & En-triken. This partnership continued until the year 1893. After that time Mr. En-triken practiced alone.

In the year 1884 he was elected state's attorney of this county. He held this office for the full term of four years, performing his public duties with credit to himself and fidelity to the public interests. February 8, 1902, he was appointed by Judge W. H. Gest, master in chancery of this circuit court. In this office he served for a period exceeding two years.

"Mr. En-triken died August 3, 1908, at Moline of heart failure, a weakness with which he had been afflicted in other years. He was buried in Riverside cemetery at Moline. He left surviving him two daughters and three sons, Mrs. Eva M. Morgan, Mrs. Ada L. Peterson, Will B. En-triken, Fred C. En-triken and Roy J. En-triken.

"In his political relations he was a member of the republican party, strong in his political convictions and earnest in their advocacy.

"In his church relations he was and for many years had been a member of the First Congregational church of Moline.

"As a lawyer he was able, honest, industrious and affable, genial and kindly in his relations with his brother attorneys, respectful and dignified in his attitude to the court. His genial, cheerful and kindly manner during all the years of his life as a lawyer, will ever be remembered by his brethren. His memory will remain in their hearts with warm appreciation and tender recollection.

"In summing up this notice of our brother, we present the following resolution for adoption as the expression of this bar on the death of our brother and as our estimate of him:

"Resolved, That this bar submissively bows to the will of Divine Providence in the removal of our brother, Walter J. En-triken from our midst, the scene of his life labors as a lawyer. We express our high appreciation of him as a Christian gentleman, having set before us an example worthy of imitation. As a lawyer, in his relations with us as such and with the court, he was able, respectful, upright and conscientious, possessing traits of character that commanded our respect. In his relations to his family, his friends and the public, he was a faithful father, a warm friend and a patriotic citizen. We therefore pay this tribute of respect to his memory feelingly regretting his departure from us and confidently believing that he is now safely resting from all his earthly labors, his memory a cherished remembrance to us who knew him so well. Be it further

"Resolved, That we tender to his children our sympathy and deep regret of the loss to them of a loving father, assuring them that the sentiments above expressed truly represent our feelings in the death of our brother, their father, and be it further

"Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the clerk of this court to the children named, and that these resolutions be spread upon the records of this court; that in due respect to the memory of our brother, on the adoption of these resolutions, this court be adjourned.

handsome styles, modish, up-to-date shoes than these for 1909. The ever-popular patent leather, the gun-metal and dull calf for stormy weather and long wear, fine glazed kid for foot comfort, tan and brown calf and vici, handsome suedes—all enter into the making of these well-known shoes.

Regis means quality, style, long wear—in fact, every desirable property that can enter into women's shoes. Regis shoes at $5.00, $4.00, $3.50 and $3.00.

A 15c Collar for 7½c

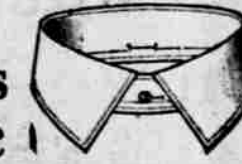

A Box of Men's Collars, New Spring and Summer Shapes, for 47c.

PROBABLY the largest manufacturer of 15c collars in Troy, N. Y., uses this means—that enables us to put on this exceptional sale—of keeping their factory going and their hands employed during their dull months, October, November and December, they make up about 100,000 dozen collars which they sell at factory cost, but without stamping their brand on the collars and prohibiting the use of their name in the advertisements.

They make just 12 leading styles and if any of these suit, you can depend on it that you are getting a 15c collar for 7½c, or, as they are sold only by the box of six, at 47c.

FIRE DESTROYS A BARN AT SEARS

Flames Take Structure Owned By John Koester, and Horse and Hay and Grain Burn.

A barn on the Ninth street road at Sears, owned by John Koester, was destroyed by fire about 11 o'clock last night. The flames brilliantly illuminated the sky, and could be seen for miles. The structure was entirely destroyed, and the contents of the barn, including a horse and a quantity of grain and hay, were also burned. The loss is about $800.

CROWD CHEERS HASKELL

Indicted Governor Gets Ovation When He Goes to Sign Bond.

Muskogee, Okla., Feb. 6.—Judge Campbell in the United States district court yesterday afternoon set Feb. 13 as the day for Governor Haskell and the six other men under indictment for alleged fraud in connection with the Muskogee town lot cases to appear in court and sign a bond. When the governor, accompanied by Mrs. Haskell, State Auditor Trapp and other officials alighted from his train more than a thousand persons were at the station with a brass band to greet him. His appearance was the signal for long and loud cheering.

JEROME AND STIMSON AT OUTS

Precedence in Suit Over Canal Libel Alleged to Be Cause.

New York, Feb. 6.—Some friction has arisen between District Attorney Jerome and United States District Attorney Stimson in the Panama libel case, and as matters stand it looks as if Mr. Jerome would not take up the case.

After Mr. Stimson answered Mr. Jerome's first letter, promising Mr. Jerome the government would cooperate with him, Jerome addressed another letter to Mr. Stimson, and today the latter sent a reply to it. Neither Mr. Jerome nor Mr. Stimson would make public this latest correspondence, but it is understood that Jerome asked Stimson to give him the precedence in the case, or, in other words, to have the federal proceedings held up until Jerome went ahead and attempted to get an indictment from the grand jury of the county. To this Stimson, it is said, failed to make any direct answer, but inasmuch as the federal grand jury takes up the case again on Monday, according to an announcement made yesterday, it would appear that Jerome is not to have his way.
